

FULL CRATE

Full Crate has set himself apart by effortlessly producing and playing music, ranging from electronic R&B all the way to sweaty deephouse.

Red Bull acknowledged his talents and invited him to attend the prestigious Red Bull Music Academy in Madrid in 2011.

After hitting the clubs hard with his contagious riddim "Big Booty Problem" Full Crate impressed with the release of his EP "Vogue" featuring US all star Trinidad James, Bryn Christopher, Bluey Robinson and Daily Paper co-founder Papa Ghana to compile a unique feel good EP.

Vogue is the EP where Full Crate shares his experiences from playing clubs and festivals worldwide. It's about all those people that can set their mind free and enjoy life.

In these releases, you can hear Full Crate's interest in (deep)house while never forgetting the warm, soulful sound he stands for.
